12. A BIBLICAL WAY OF PRAYING THE MASS

Want to tap more fully into the abundance of grace offered at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass? Father Timothy Gallagher resurrects the teachings of Venerable Bruno Lanteri. A holy priest seeking to root himself in prayer during the turbulence of war and persecution in northern Italy, Venerable Bruno developed a biblical way of praying the Mass that transforms it into a true prayer of the heart. Father Gallagher discovered this method of praying the Mass 45 years ago, and it has been a blessing for him ever since. He now shares this method with readers. Through a selection of biblical figures, he invites the faithful to live each part of the Mass with these figures' sentiments and hearts. Combined with spiritual exercises and reflections — and full-color images of sacred art — this book will assist one in growing in prayer during Mass as well as one's spiritual life. Paperback; 150 pages. Item: 82279, $14.95.

13. HOW TO LISTEN WHEN GOD IS SPEAKING

How do we listen to God speak to our hearts, minds and wills, especially above the noise and stress of the modern world? What is the process of discerning God's will? Bestselling author and popular EWTN host Jesuit Father Mitch Pacwa tackles these and other questions in this comprehensive book on discernment. Paperback; 176 pages. Item: 1833, $14.

14. OUR LADY'S WARDROBE

"Right now in heaven, Mary has a real, living, breathing, vibrant, glorified body. She's not a ghost. She's living. And when she has appeared at various times in history — like at Lourdes or Fatima — the witnesses who saw her all said that she looked just like us — only more beautiful. I wanted to demonstrate this very important truth in my book," author Anthony DeStefano told the Register about his Marian children's book. "I didn't want Our Lady to look like she does in all those 16th-century Renaissance and Baroque paintings (beautiful as those paintings are). Also, I wanted to show children that Our Lady is active in heaven." Item: 6261, $16.95.
